TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Saturday, October 11th, 1873.

At a large church gathering not a hundred miles from Richland, in Onslow county, a lady sent her son to the well with a silver pitcher. More than one person was heard to say "Look at that feller totin' water in a coffee pot."

The sensational story published by the New York Herald in relation to the poisoning of Captain Hall, of the Polaris, turns out to be without foundation. The remainder of the crew, known as the Buddington party, has arrived at the navy yard in Washington, and been interrogated by Secretary Robeson. Mr. Morton, the second officer, absolutely denied that he had made any accusation of Dr. Bessel; or that he had used any expression from which such a deduction could have been drawn, as is asserted by the Herald's Dundee correspondent.

Such atrocious charges, utterly without foundation, against a man who has put his life in the gravest peril in the cause of science, deserve the reprobation of the public. Suppose Mr. Morton should have died on the passage to America from Europe, Dr. Bessel would have gone to his grave with the shadow on his name cast by this calumny. Such stories as this will cause the public to utterly disregard any oblique insinuations of the Herald, and to view with suspicion its most positive assertions.

When we read of the Bourbon and Orleans princes settling the future of France, and bargaining who shall reign and succeed to the crown, we seem to be carried back to the days of Louis XIV. That a great nation—in some respects the greatest on earth—should be the subject of an intrigue between two families, seems too fanciful for this age; yet a superficial view of France seems to show that monarchy, based on the divine right of Kings, will be soon established in it. While the domination of both Napoleons was founded on the will of the people, a Capet cannot wear the crown without denying to them any rights except such as flow from the bounty of the monarch,

It cannot be credited that Frenchmen are prepared to accept this latter doctrine. Thirty millions of intelligent people have never yet bowed themselves to a yoke voluntarily. The day that the Legislative Assembly attempts to force on France a King invested with divine rights, will witness an uprising of the people which has not been equaled since the first revolution. There is great attachment to the name of Bonaparte in France among all classes, yet the Bourbons have no friends except among that part of the nobility which lives on memories of traditionary splendor, or who are purchased by the gold of the reigning monarchs of Europe.

We do not think the friends of Republican institutions have much to dread in the present aspect of affairs in France. It must be impossible for those principles which are advocated by such men as Thiers and Gambetta to be stricken down.

That Tin Box.

The statement has been going the rounds of the Democratic press for some time, that the President was a depositor of the First National Bank at Washington, and that after the suspension, a little tin box containing the amount of the balance due him, had been sent over to him at the White House, while poor Andy Johnson lost his money—that the President's deposit was called "special" only after the suspension, etc., etc.—This has been a rare theme for the enemies of the administration, and they have availed themselves of it on many occasions. We did not believe it when we first saw the statement, but preferred to wait and see the denial, which was sure to follow, before we said much about it. That denial has now appeared, as we supposed it would, and the ghouls will have to find another grave. The following is from the Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Times:

"The very sensational story told about the withdrawal of President Grant's deposit from the First National Bank the day before the failure turns out to have been an effort of somebody's imagination. The facts are that the President never had a special deposit with the First National, nor one that was pretended to be speical. He was not allowed interest on his balance, and his account only covered his salary, which the bank drew and placed to his credit, to be checked out precisely like any other deposit. On the 1st of September the President's account showed that he had to his credit about $400. His balance was not increased at all during the month, and on the 15th, three days before the suspension, his account showed an over-draft of $71. This over-draft has since been paid to the Receiver, and the account closed. The President never had a little tin box on deposit in this bank, and he was in Pittsburg the day it is said to have been carried over to the White House to him. He did have, however, a box in the bank of Jay Cooke & Co., containing his private valuable papers, and among other things the registered Rawlings bonds which he holds in trust; but not a dollar of money. This box was taken away about a week after the bank closed, on or about the same day that the over-draft of the First National was paid."

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— The Count de Chambord has left Froshdorf. His destination is unknown.

— M. Grevy, formerly President of the Assembly, will shortly publish a letter declaring in favor of the republic.

— In the Bazaine court-martial, on Thursday, the hearing of M. Riviere's report was concluded, and the documents appended were read. One relates to the dispatches sent and received by the accused, and shows that the miscarriage of those which Bazine addressed to MacMahon precipitated the catostrophe at Sedan.

— Carlists profess to have received information that Gen Otto, on the 6th instant, defeated and routed the army of Gen. Marcanes, near Cerauqui, and compelled it to retreat to Puente la Reyna, thirteen miles southwest of Pampaluna, leaving behind a large number of dead and wounded. The Carlists claim this as the greatest victory of the campaign.

— New York advices, of the 9th, say: Some of the down town banks have virtually resumed payment of greenbacks. The managers of the clearing house says that since the issue of loan certificates there has not been seen so many greenbacks as were seen yesterday when the clearances were made. A Wall street bank President, spoken to on the subject, said he thought greenbacks had become sufficiently numerous to allow of such a course being taken. In case, however, the pressure became too great the banks would no doubt, fall back on the plan which has been followed during the past two weeks as a measure of safety. There seemed no reason, he said, why the payment of legal tenders should not go on; trade was prosperous.

— One of the detectives who brought Irving from San Francisco says the story told to him by the prisoner is entirely different from the stories published, and he (the detective) is of the opinion that the Nathan case will be renewed again and the work all have to be done over. Many facts which have never appeaaed in print in relation to the Nathan case have been known by the officers engaged in the case some time. They have waited for connection to make the chain of evidence complete and it is now believed that Irving has the power to place them on the right track. In the first place, it is believed that the following-named persons were engaged in the attempt to rob Mr. Nathan's house July 29, 1870: George Ellis, Dan Kelly, who is now in Sing Sing and Billy Forrester, now in Joilet prison. The job was put up by a German woman, whose name could not be ascertained, who was then lodging with Billy Johnson. She subsequently went to board with Irving, and while there, no doubt, the latter managed to secure papers, &c., by which he proposes to show all about the Nathan case. Dan Kelly was heard to say that he killed Nathan, aud to tell her how he used the "dog" while doing so. It is said that Irving will prove that Kelly, who is in Sing Sing, killed Nathan with the iron dog, which was obtained from a caulker in the Brooklyn navy yard; that $10,000 in bonds, which were in Nathan's safe. were seen in Kelly's hands a few days after the murder; that these bonds were negotiated; and that Nathan's watch and chain were pawned in Centre street the day after the murder.

The Winston Republican says: "On the 29th of September, two barns, belonging to Mr. Solomon Tise, residing in the northwestern part of this county, containing four mules, two cows and all of his first mowing of hay, was burned to the ground

The News says: "Mr. Henry Walser, of Davidson county, having resigned his position as a member of the Board of Directors for the Insane Asylum, Gov. Caldwell has selected Dr. S. G Coffin of Guilford county to fill the vacancy.

A society in Piscataquis, Maine, has resolved that it is "as bad to vote for a thief, a liar, or a drunkard, as to be one."

WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 23, 1873.

Col. Wm. L. DeRosset, President of the Chamber of Commerce:

SIR: Your Committee on Harbor Improvements have thought it proper to call the attention of the Chamber to the present condition of the beach bordering the harbor (which is now being improved by the Government) from Bald Head point around by the Capes and up to New Inlet.

It is very evident that to make these improvements available and permanent, the river and harbor must be protected from the blowing sands from those beaches by some means or other, and if no better can be adopted, then, by the cultivation of grass, shrubbery, trees, &c., and in view of this necessity, and the possibility of its not being satisfactorily accomplished by the Government, it may become necessary for the promotion of our navigation and commerce that this work must be done by the city of Wilmington and county of New Hanover; in such case it may prove embarrassing to trespass upon the lands of a county not identified with the interest of Wilmington, and even if the trespass was not forbidden, she could not be expected to participate in an expenditure of money not in the interest of her own citizens, while the county of New Havover would have no authority for expending money beyond her own limits.

In view of the possibility of these and other complications arising sooner or later, and obstructing the perfect completion of the harbor improvements, we suggest the propriety of the Chamber taking such steps as may seem necessary for securing an act of retrocession of this beach to New Hanover county at the approaching session of the Legislature.

And we furthermore direct your attention to prevent, prospective complication to our commerce and trades growing out of the ownership of Eagle's Island by a county whose interest is foreign to our own.

Even at this moment, civil authority over commerce of the port cannot be exercised with care and facility.

And again, across this Island is to be found the only road-way to the city from all that region of country lying west of the Cape Fear river.

This road being a chartered monopoly, is very expensive, at some times dangerous and impassible, and at all times unpleasant, probibiting to a considerable degree anything like a profitable, free or pleasant communication and trafic with that country, and so it is likely to continue, so long as the jurisdiction over this Island and road is held by a county not directly interested in the advancement of the city.

Therefore, it appears right, proper and to the interest of both counties, as well as the city, that the ownership of this Island should be transferred to the county of New Hanover, whose interest would be to make this road a free, safe and pleasant highway to and from the city, which would equally benefit Brunswick county by affording to her citizens every access to their market town. We furthermore believe it would do much toward settling up the waste lands of Brunswick, by foreign emigrants, who generally locate where the country is well improved with good and cheap highways to market, and nowhere else.

In connection with this subject, it would be well to remember, that in 1728, when New Hanover county was formed, the Cape Fear river was made her western border. At that time Brunswick river was unknown, and what is now known as Brunswick river was then recognized as the northwest branch of Cape Fear, making its confluence with the northeast branch of the river, at the foot of the Island, and that portion of what is now recognized as the Northwest branch, lying between the bluff at the head of the Island and Point Peter, opposite to the city, was regarded as only a cut-off or thoroughfare, which, in the course of time, grew to the dimensions of a principal river, and so became. How this Island ever became attached to Brunswick county we are not advised. Be this as it may, it is now evident that the present organization is damaging to both counties, inasmuch as it retards emigration into Brunswick county to settle and cultivate her waste lands, obstructs the travel and transportation of her own citizens, while it obstructs the advancement of New Hanover county and the city of Wilmington, by denying civil jurisdiction to some extent over the commerce of the port, and the trade and traffic with all that region of country which is at present almost a sealed book.

We therefore suggest that the Chamber take immediate steps towards negotiations with the authorities of Brunswick county for arranging a satisfactory bill of retrocession of these two sections to New Hanover county at the approaching session of the Legislature of North Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,

H. NUTT, GEO. HARRISS, } Committee.

SALE OF PAINTINGS.—Attention is called to the auction sale of fine chromos, &c., by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, at the old stand of J. E. Buie, (Evans' Block,) Princess street, this evening.

FREE SCHOOLS. — The schools for both white and colored youth will open next Monday. Rev. Mr. Blake has returned with some teachers. There will be some seventeen teachers employed this winter.

ST. PAUL'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH.—Preparatory service at 10 a. m. English service and Communion at 11 a. m. German service at 7½ p. m. Sunday School at 3 p. m. Catechetical Lectures on Friday at 3½ p. m.

QUICK PASSAGE.—The schooner Ben, Capt. G. W. Davis, arrived at this port yesterday from New York, making the trip from bar to bar in forty-seven hours and ten minutes. This is, we believe, about the quickest trip ever made between the two ports, and reflects credit upon the seamanship of the Captain, as well as the sailing qualities of the schooner.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Gold is 108¼.

— Go to church to-morrow.

— Oysters delicious and plentiful.

— The house-fly seeks the sunny places.

— The ill-shaped moon looked very cold last night.

— There were 166 carts in market during the past week.

— Adam Empie has returned to the city after a brief absence.

— H. R. Kornegay, Esq., of Kenansville, was in the city last night.

— One gentleman brought home nineteen ladies and children yesterday.

— Ere another POST appears, Lent's New York Circus will have arrived!

— Rev. Mr. Hiden has returned, much rejuvenated by his month's vacation.'

— Dr. S. P. Wright, of the Humphrey House, at Goldsboro, keeps a splendid hotel.

— Attention Grangers! Meeting to-night at the Court House. Every member must be present.

— Are any of our Wilmington ladies going to send any specimens of their needle work to the State Fair?

— Mr. Bailey, who formerly kept the hotel now known as the National, will be in the city in a day or two.

— Col. Klein was out on the street yesterday, after being confined to his room for the past seven weeks.

— Great Eastern Circus receipts at Wilson thirty-eight hundred dollars, and at Goldsboro' forty-two hundred.

— Salem was depopulated last Thursday, as twenty persons, residents of Wilmington, made their exodus on that day.

— The first Artificial Stone pavement will be in front of Taylor & Giles new insurance building, nearly opposite the POST.

— The Superior Court for Onslow county, his Honor Judge Russell presiding, adjourned on last Tuesday, holding only two days.

— Bro. Hannaford, of the Magnolia Monitor, was in our office yesterday.—He agrees with Addison, in preferring cheerfulness to mirth.

— Alex. Sprunt, Esq., British Vice Consul, arrived last evening. Mr. Sprunt has been visiting with his family in Scotland during the summer.

— Modoc stock is flat since Captain Jack suspended. His circulating medium became too much extended, and the shrinkage in values was too much for him.

— Notwithstanding the general tightness of the money market, it is a pleasure to know that mosquitoes bills will be one hundred per cent. below par in less than sixty days.

— The mosquitoes merely put on their overcoats during the late cool weather, and didn't freeze worth a cent, but we are happy to observe that cockroaches are much less numerous.

— Grass widowers made quite a raid yesterday on the Weldon Road. One, very anxious, met his wife at Goldsboro', another at Magnolia, another at South Washington, etc. Much amusement ensued thereat.

— The WEEKLY POST being but one dollar a year, and containing twenty-two columns of reading matter, is becoming very popular, and is growing every day. We will show a list in three months more which will astonish some people.

— Col. Brink is doing more for the development of this county than an hundred grumblers. Seventeen more immigrants arrived yesterday for the colony he is interested in, making one hundred souls now residing there.

— Superior Court will commence in this county one week from Monday.—The criminal docket will undoubtedly occupy the entire term, and attorneys should notify their clients in civil cases that their attendance will not be needed.

— Farmers who have obtained advances of the merchants in this city during the season, should send their crops in at once to aid the men who have aided them. It is unfair, and even unjust, for a man who has obtained money on a growing crop, to hold back because prices are low, when he owes the merchant, and the present tightness of the money market prevents him from realizing on other resources. Think of this, ye farmers, who owe our merchants.

— The street cars charge five cents for a ride, if you have the change, but if you present a ten cent piece, the driver hands you a little sealed envelope marked "10," with a ticket and three cents change. A card in the car says this is because the driver cannot be annoyed by making change. We do not see how the driver would be hindered any less if the envelope contained a bright nickel and a ticket, but some things are past finding out. We don't know as we care, anyhow.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

A person charged with disorderly conduct submitted and was fined $20 and costs.

Champ Artis, also charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $10 and costs.

William Green, for larceny of a pair of boots, was held in $50 bond to appear before the Superior Court.

FREE SHOW.—An enterprising adventurer has put up a machine called a "trapeze," consisting of little wooden horses, on which children may swing afound the circle for a small consideration.

WYMAN.—To-night is the last opportunity of witnessing this gentleman's performance, for the season. He has drawn full houses, and, we are happy to say, done a good business generally.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, corner of Market and Fifth Streets—Elder J. C. Hiden, pastor—Sunday, October 12th—Preaching at 11 o'clock, a. m. and 7½ p. m. Sunday School at 3½ a. m. The Lord's Supper after morning sermon.

LENT'S GREAT SHOW.—This well advertised and noted Equestrian and Animal Show, put in an appearance yesterday. Prior to opening the doors of his "canvas city," the manager treated our citizens to the most gorgeous street parade that has ever been given by any similar establishment in Dubuque since it has been Dubuque, and one that excited general admiration. That display, with the previous reputation of the establishment, completely filled the pavilions afternoon and evening with the most select audiences we have ever seen under canvas. The general verdict of the audiences was, that Mr. Lent kept his promise as set forth in the bills, and that his show is worthy of the liberal patronage it receives everywhere.—Dubuque Herald, August 12.

The Raleigh News says: "The Committee appointed by the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society, to proceed to Washington and invite President Grant to visit the approaching State Fair, have discharged their duty. They returned to Raleigh Thursday afternoon, and reported to Captain R. T. Fulghum, Secretary of the Society, the non-success of their mission. The President received the Committee very courteously, and assigned as a reason for not accepting the invitation the approaching visit of the Evangelical Alliance and his promise to be present at the reunion of the Army of Tennessee at Toledo. The President regretted much that his engagements prevented his accepting the invitation, and hoped that next year the Society would give him a longer notice. As we before stated, Judge Settle, Col. I. J. Young and Messrs. T. P. Devereux and F. H. Busbee composed the Committee.

A very sad event happened to a "patent outside" rural newspaper in Ohio recently. Like many weekly newspapers, it has one side printed at Chicago or some other large city. Its editor is a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat of the old school, who, rather than give up his party or say aught against it, would cut his own throat. His amazement can easily be imagined when, after he had published a recent edition of his paper, he discovered the following revolutionary paragraph among others, upon the patent side: "The great antiquity of Bill Allen is beyond question, as Homer speaks of him under the alias of 'Stentor." After Noyes takes some of the wind out of him, it is said, he will be offered a situation to act as fog-horn on the Rhode Island coast." The editor has since apologized to his astounded readers, declaring that the disrespectful mention of the Democratic candidate for Governor got into the paper without his knowledge or consent, but they, ignorant of the peculiar way in which newspapers of that kind are made, persist in calling him a heretic and a backslider.

The editor of a new paper in Nebraska, begins his introductory article with the following sentence: "The object in view in the establishment of this paper is the procuring of means wherewith to buy bread and butter and good clothes."
